placed new American flags at the graves of men and women who, in war time and in peace time, have defended against all foes not only our nation but also the ideals and principles for which it stands. In both instances, the new American flags that we placed at these monuments are the flags that you graciously made available, through Paul Mullally, to us. For your generosity, we are very grateful. Thank you.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

S. Robert Powell
President

EMS:srp
cc: Paul Mullally